Message from the Head of Institution

Dr. Ranjan Kantha
Director

The cornerstone of belief at Amity has always been about nurturing the students in a holistic manner.

The future of any nation is its human resource and in a country like India where the majority of the population consists of the younger mass, it becomes imperative on the part of educational institutions to guide them, nurture them and help them become good and responsible citizens with the right values.

We AGBS Bhubaneswar have taken the cudgels to uplift the society, through grooming students, who will serve the nation and their families, in every way possible. We believe in igniting young minds not just through formal education or certificates, but through educating them to think, serve and spread the light of education, wherever they go; thereby creating success stories.
